

Parcel Size Guide

With just six parcel sizes to choose from, Sendle is a simple choice for parcel delivery. But, the sizes, bound by both volume and weight, can be hard to guesstimate for certain boxes.

Plus, volume can be difficult to visualize. Which is where this guide comes in.

You want to make sure you are getting the biggest bang out of each volume break. What follows is a simple and fun handbook for all of our parcel sizes.

Satchel 500g/A4

This guy is enough for your small stuff. The size of an A4 sheet, you can fill it with up to 500 grams of fun (or boring) stuff.

Things you could ship under 500g/A4:

Five pairs of socks

Two Freddy Kruger masks

A simple set of silver thumb rings

Skull-embossed brass knuckles

Send what you want, where you want regardless of its subjective level of fun.

Or, you can remove all weight restrictions with our Unlimited Satchel.

Handbag 1kg/4L

Now, when what you're sending is just a little heftier and more voluminous, you level up to the handbag.

With a capacity of up to 1kg and 4L, this handbag can convey a decent quantity of merchandise, assuming you aren't slinging bespoke shipping anchors.

Things you could ship under 1kg/4L:

A pair of trousers

A pack of patterned undies

Just stick them in a little box (or mailing bag) and ship them out.

To get you started, we've included some of the more common boxes that are perfect handbag material. The highlighted ones come in with the volume closest to the max for this size.

22cm x 16cm x 7.5cm

23cm x 15cm x 8cm

20cm x 15cm x 10cm

15cm x 15cm x 15cm

Shoebox 3kg/12L

The shoebox is as apt a description as we could come up with here. Luckily, you are encouraged to send all types of things, not just those that encase your tootsies. With a ceiling of 3kg and 12L, we're certain you can find a whole bunch of non-shoe things to ship.

Things you could ship under 3kg/12L:

Paperback book series of The Hitchhiker's Guide Galaxy

A warm blanket (for snuggling with a good book)

Below is a selection of the more common box sizes out there. The boxes that size out the closest to the max volume for this package are highlighted.

25cm x 20cm x 15cm

20cm x 20cm x 20cm

23cm x 23cm x 18cm

43cm x 27.5cm x 9.5cm

Briefcase 5kg/20L

While the name may sound a little stuffy, there's no need to stuff this parcel with business documents or paper clips. While the sky isn't the limit here, you can fill this guy up with a fair amount of fine things. To be clear, the limit is up to 5kg and 20L.

Now, don't go out, buy a briefcase, fill it with fun things, and slap a label on it. We'd recommend just using a box of a similar size (see right image).

Find a few fine boxes to use for any of these examples and more.

Things you could ship under 5kg/20L:

A light bowling ball

Three bottles of Cabernet Sauvignon
*see packaging guidelines

28cm x 25.5cm x 21.5cm

31cm x 23cm x 23cm

30cm x 25cm x 25cm

39cm x 28cm x 14cm

Carry-on 10kg/40L

The go-to size for all those travellers who have no time for baggage claim but still need to keep a small wardrobe with them. When packing up a fair amount of stuff, know you can shove up to 10kg into a 40L box and call it a carry-on. Walk right past the baggage carousel. Just don't actually send it in a carry-on bag. A box will work best.

Things you could ship under 10kg/40L:

A blender in there plus all the ingredients for your pina colada

Your whole outfit—shoes, shades, dress, earrings, a winter jacket, and a scrunchy

Again, to get as close to the max as possible, you'll want to look at the highlighted boxes below.

30cm x 30cm x 30cm

40cm x 30cm x 26cm

32cm x 32cm x 32cm

50cm x 33cm x 20.4cm

Check-in 25kg/100L

Now, we've all exceeded our carry-on capacity and had to opt for checking bags and waiting for the belt to convey our dear luggage. That's OK. In the context of Sendle, it just means you've landed upon our largest size.

The upper limits of this box are a rather massive 25kg and 100L. Remember, send your stuff in boxes. Actual luggage will not be accepted.

Things you could ship under 25kg/100L:

543 golf balls

Half a dozen carefully cushioned garden gnomes

Below, you will find some box sizes that will fit the bill.

56.5cm x 37.4cm x 28.4cm

57.5cm x 37.5cm x 30cm

55cm x 42cm x 38cm

50cm x 50cm x 40cm

With this information close at hand, you can easily click the right parcel size each time without wondering if it will work out.

Happy packing!
